

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Thank you for visiting the Town of Scarborough website and reviewing our privacy statement. The Town of Scarborough is strongly committed to maintaining the privacy of your personal information and the security of our computer systems. With respect to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information, the Town of Scarborough makes every effort to ensure compliance with applicable Federal law, including, but not limited to, the Privacy Act of 1974 and the Freedom of Information Act.

As a general rule, the Town of Scarborough does not collect personally-identifying information about you when you visit our site, unless you choose to provide such information to us. All information collected on the Town of Scarborough website will be treated the same as any written communication and is subject to the confidentiality and public disclosure provisions of 1 MRSA Chapter 13.

DISCLAIMER

The minutes, agendas, notices, schedules, ordinances and other information provided on the Town of Scarborough website are offered as a courtesy and convenience for the public, but are not intended to substitute for the Town's official records, which are available for inspection and copying at the Scarborough Town Office during regular business hours. While every effort is made to keep the information on this website up-to-date and complete, the website is a supplementary information source and is not all-inclusive. Reliance on this website is at the user's own risk. The Town of Scarborough, its boards, departments, officers, officials and employees do not warrant the accuracy, reliability, completeness or timeliness of any information on the Town of Scarborough's website and may not be held liable for any losses caused by any person's reliance on information available on or absent from this website. The text of the ordinances on this website has not been officially certified by the Town Clerk of the Town of Scarborough. Certified copies of the ordinances are available at the office of the Town Clerk.
